Questions:

1. Who are the users that will use the paid content, subscriptions, features, and services in the app?

Users - Individuals or Businesses with security needs

Our application is free to use and we do not offer any in-app paid services for our users.

2. Where can users purchase the content, subscriptions, features, and services that can be accessed in the app?

Our application is free to use and we do not offer any in-app paid services for our users. So, there is no place in the app to purchase the content, subscriptions, features, and services.

3. What specific types of previously purchased content, subscriptions, features, and services can a user access in the app?

Our application is free to use and we do not offer any in-app paid services for our users. All features and content can be accessed free of cost by our users.

4. What paid content, subscriptions, or features are unlocked within your app that do not use in-app purchase?

Our application is free and all the content & its features are free to use. So, there is no content, subscription, or features that is unblocked within the application since all content & features are already available for every user.